Message from the Editorial Board

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars and we aim to publish high quality research and scholarship. By addressing important global issues across the broad sweep of land science, e.g., urbanization, land grabbing and ecosystem services, Land promotes an understanding which will lead to solutions that will benefit human well-being and environmental sustainability.

Aims and Scope

Land (ISSN 2073-445X) is an international and crossdisciplinary open access journal of land use/land change, land management, land system science, soil system and landscape, etc. It publishes reviews, regular research papers, communications and short notes, without restriction on the length of papers. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical research in as much detail as possible in order that results can be reproduced.

The scope of Land includes:

- All aspects of land use and land cover change
- Land systems science
- Land-related issues in climate, ecology, environmental sciences and geosciences
- Land management, including the application of ecosystem services approaches
- Livelihoods, food security and supply chains in relation to land issues
- Land tenure, including disputes and land grabs
- Soil system
- Landscape planning, conservation and management
